NATIONAL--

Actor, director, and producer Clint Eastwood has been named the 39th recipient of Screen Actors Guild's most prestigious honor, the Life Achievement Award for career achievement and humanitarian accomplishment, presented annually to an actor who fosters the highest ideals of the profession. The 2002 Life Achievement Award will be presented to Eastwood at the 9th Annual Screen Actors Guild Awards, which will premiere on TNT on Mar. 9, 2003. For more information, visit www.sagawards.org.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA--

Theatre of NOTE will produce its Second Annual Young Writers Project and is asking for help with donations to help cover the cost of publishing the books and producing the show. Five schools will participate in this year's event with seven plays written by high school students from all over Southern California. Each year, award-winning playwrights are sent to SoCal high schools, where they conduct a two-hour workshop on developing and writing short-form plays. Students send NOTE their best efforts, and NOTE chooses a handful for production. NOTE will mount a two-day run of the plays, Nov. 23-24. Each performance culminates in a "talk back" with the playwrights, actors and directors. Each participating student receives a NOTE-published book of the performed plays. All donors will get a mention in the program. Donations can be sent to: Theatre of NOTE Young Writers Project, c/o Jonathan Klein, 1239 N. Valley St., Burbank, CA 91505. Donations will be accepted until Nov. 20...
