Los Angeles Stage Alliance Announces 2004 OVATION Award Nominees

Over 50 Actors, 74 Productions, Receive Prestigious Nominations

The Los Angeles Stage Alliance has announced nominations for the upcoming 2004 OVATION Awards. Over 50 actors and 74 productions were nominated for the awards, which were established in 1989 to celebrate the excellence of Los Angeles' theatres and theatre artists and their contributions to the vibrant LA cultural scene. In 2003-2004, 378 productions were submitted for Ovation consideration. The voting season runs from Sep 1 - Aug 31. To qualify, productions must have registered with Actors' Equity and run for a minimum of twelve performances.

This year's awards ceremony will take place on Sunday November 14, 2004, at the magnificently restored Orpheum Theatre on Broadway in the downtown Los Angeles historic theatre district.
